*The Marshall High School
Journalism Class of 1945
Proudly Presents - - -*

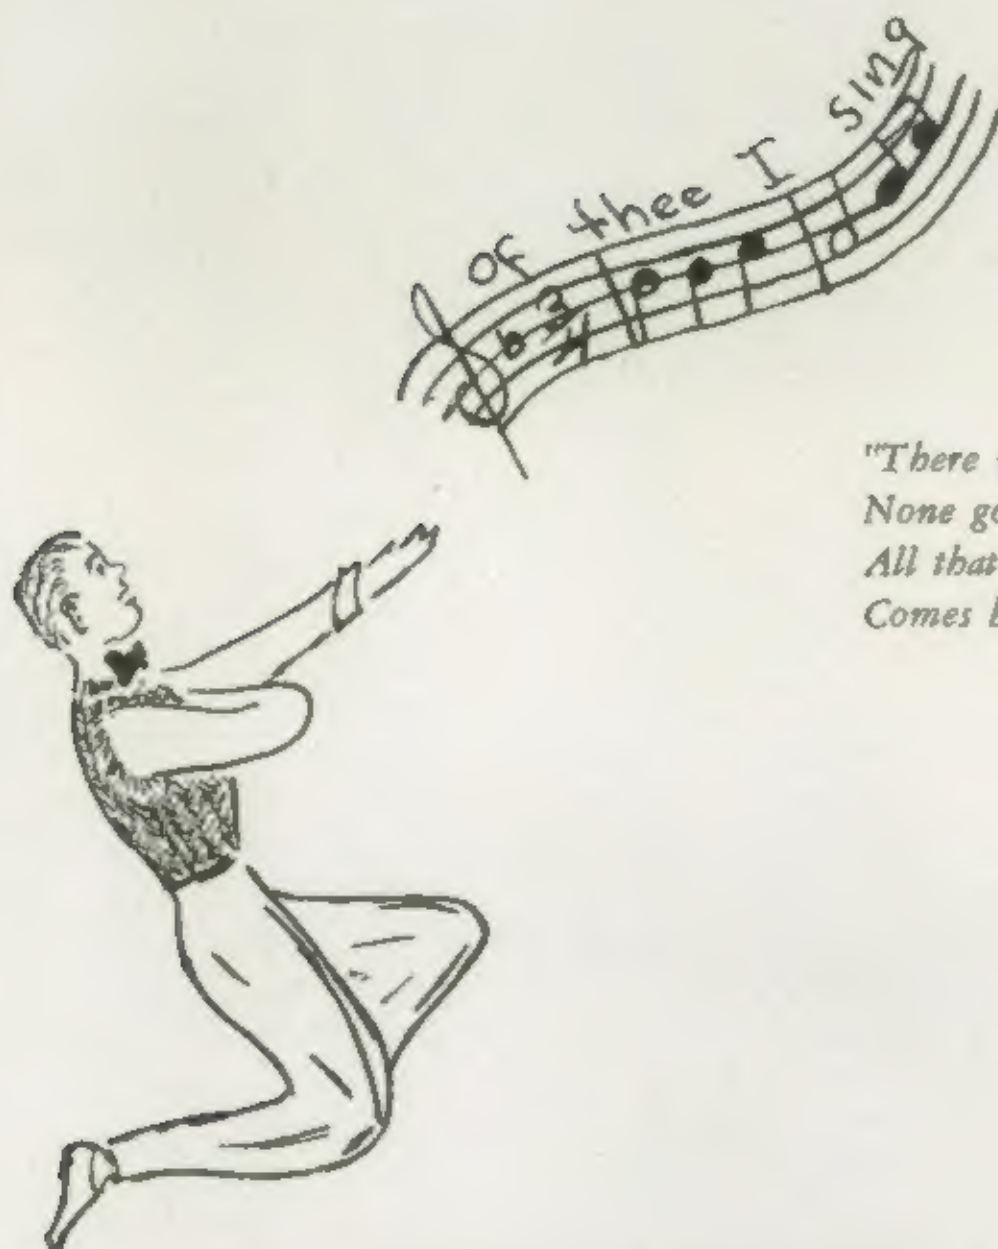

THE

It has been said of her many times, by students who have participated in her classes, how much they have appreciated her patient effort and direction, probably more than that of any other teacher.

Many of us know of the dozens of her pupils with whom she corresponds and to whom she sends bits of friendliness and cheer. Many others of us have only heard her praises echoed throughout the halls of M.H.S., but all of us join together in dedicating this Dial to Miss Louise M. Diehl.

*"There is a destiny that makes us brothers;
None goes his way alone;
All that we send into the lives of others Comes back into our own."*

SENIORS

Charles E. Sayers

Who Wouldn't Love You
Chuck, sleek haired Pres. of the Sr. Class, raced across the football field as quarterback 3 yrs., shortstopped baseball 4, and was basketball forward 3, gave sterling performances as Elmer in the Jr and Sam in the Sr. Play. Chmn. of the JHop floor show; represented M.H.S. in the 1944 Speech contest. Notre Dame appeals to Charles as a big part of his future.

Wenona Behnke

Time On My Hands
Toni hustled around chalking up points for G.A.A. 3 yrs.; did a great job as wardrobe mistress for the Jr. play. One of Van Johnson's fond admirers; loves hotdogs, speech class, and the Hit Parade. Her most prized possession is an Air Corps laddie. College or marriage are future plans. Bing or Frankie, she loves 'em both. Collected cash for Kroger's.

Margaret Barton

Don't Sweetheart Me
"Mugs," our beloved bomber from Stockbridge High School, was both V. Pres. and Pres. of the Home Economics Club; a member of the Band 3 yrs., Librarian 1 yr., and treas. the next. She was Gen. Chmn. of Stockbridge Home her Jr. yr., on School Council 1 yr in M.H.S. her Sr. Yr. she joined the Latin Club, and impersonated a stern house-mother in Spring Dance.

Joan M. Armour

Smilin' Through
Good-natured "Jonie" spent 3 yrs. in G.A.A.; 2 in Latin Club. A few favorites: Spanish, Am. History, goulash, Dick Wakefield, her apartment, and her cherished mother. Admits she's lazy; claims nothing exciting ever happened to her; will continue her career as telephone operator.

Ralph Bennett

Just a Vagabond Lover
"All American Bud" fought through three yrs. of football, 3 of baseball (four ace pitcher), 4 of basketball (varsity every year). As Clancy, the gardener of the Jr. Play, he turned in a superb performance. Geometry rates tops with "Bud"; sports were his passion; Frank Lucette is his sports idol. Elected himself V.-Pres. of the Hair-Cut Club. Plans involve college training for Phys. Ed.

Mary Gail Beman

There's Something About A Soldier (And A Sailor Ain't So Bad)
Gail tooted her sax thru 3 yrs. of High School Band plus 3 years in Jr. Band; during a yr. in orchestra she acted as Sec. G.A.A. (4 yrs.), Spanish (2 yrs.), Library (1 yr). She plans college, and hopes to be married (some day). Her favorite food—cheese and hot dogs; favorite movie stars, Van Johnson and Dick Haymes.

Beatrice V. Bishop

Lazy Bones
"Bea" warbled in Choir both Jr. and Sr. yrs.; was a member of G.A.A. 3 yrs. Commercial 2, Spanish 1. She paraded with Shirley Mott and Maxine Royer. Her Sat. nights she dedicates to the Hit Parade. She enjoyed shorthand and all school activities; steak her favorite food, Bea admires Ginger Rogers and Cary Grant. She expects to attend business school, then office work.

James J. Bicknell

I'll See You In My Dream
Pensive Jim stuck with the gridiron gang 3 years; regretted neglected homework, sleepless constrained moments with Maynard, Hamp, and Kelvin. Jim spent his spare time as part of the E. B. Page Machine. He likes apple pie and chemistry; admires Tom Harmon and Edward G. Robinson; listens to the Aldrich family. Jim has an unusual superstition—he won't go to bed with two girls in one night.

Mark Boakes

Home On The Range

Modest Mark, the part-time laundryman, will march away to Anchors Aweigh after Commencement; and hopes to enter the field of Commercial Art. Needless to say his choice subject is art. His favorite food is anything, especially steak (hah) Mark enjoys Christmas Vacation most; his most prized possession is his car. His strongest superstition (you'd never guess) is girls!!!

Rowene Bosserd

Wonderful One

Rowene, a lovely singer and pianist, sang in Choir 4 yrs., remained riveted to A.A. 4 yrs. Pals with Jean and Bea Boyd, and M. L. Herman; went weak over Turhan Bey. Enjoys algebra and lives. She dabbled grease paint and mascara on the Sr. play cost. Rowene wants to be in the stenographic ranks.

Bob Boston

Turkey In The Straw

Scrub upheld the glory of M.H.S. on the athletic field. the Otto Graham of football 3 yrs. (capt. Senior yr.), basketball 3, baseball 2. Bob came from B.C. his Soph. yr.; was immediately elected pres. by admiring classmates. Scrub was Pres. of the Hatcut Club; belonged to the F.F.A. one yr. Eats anything and lots of it, which should help when he dons a khaki shoot-suit.

Norman E. Boughton

The Man On The Flying Trapeze

Norm tooted the clarinet in Band 5 yrs.; was cast. to Maestro 2 yrs.; palled with Jim Harden until the Navy claimed him, but Norm plans to join him in Uncle Sam's Service. He loves chop suey, spaghetti, history class, Benny Goodman, his piano, saxophone, and clarinet. His greatest fault is buying shirts. Buzzed busily at the Schuler between melodies.

Phyllis M. Bowers

I Love Life

Blonde slender "Phid" capably handled the part of Edna, sharp-witted maid, in the Jr. Play 4 yrs. of collecting points for G.A.A. Phyllis enjoyed Dramatics, and teasing Mr. Cunningham. Favorite stars are Van Johnson and Harry James. Plans to be a housewife, has a claim on Kenneth Meyers. Her most embarrassing moment was a fall down M.H.S.'s steps, when she was a self-conscious Freshman.

Jean Belle Boyd

A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody

A very attractive girl is "Jelly Bean" Boyd who liked art best in school, along with ball games; took the honor of Vice Pres. of her Soph. Class. Chocolates are her specialty; John Wayne and Frank Sinatra head her Hit Parade. Mary Lou Herman, Rowene Bosserd, and Charlotte Dowding are favorite pals of this taffy-haired, blue-eyed belle.

Mildred Ruth Brannon

Let The Rest Of The World Go By

Ruth exercised her vocal chords 2 yrs., as a member of ye old Choir; served refreshments for the Circus Ball. She pals with Jean Fiske; is particularly fond of her locket and bracelet from "the man." She likes Gene Kelly, Take a Chance on Me, vacations, Bing Crosby, vegetable soup, and bookkeeping.

2000-3300-25

Phil Cummins

Little Man, You've Had Busy Day

The little man who's always there is Phil, known to his pals, Leon Patterson and Doug Burns, as Snake. At school he preferred study hours to class time. He enjoys vacations more than either these. He will don the garb of a gob, but right now he's more concerned with getting a couple of extra gas coupons.

Evelyn V. Coleman

Dearly Beloved

Sang 4 yrs. in Choir; typist she loved. "When A Man Marries" is her favorite race hour, perhaps because at graduation she will marry that man from Manistiquish. She dotes on tomato sandwiches, and the gifts her brother sent from Hawaii. Out-of-school hours, if she couldn't see a game, she heaved cokes and sundaes Hemmingsen's.

2000-3300-25

Clara A. Clark

She Bowls 'Em Over

Terry was that capable gal who sparked the cheerleaders 3 yrs.; School-Council 2 yrs. (Vice-Pres., then acting Pres. her Jr. year); Vice-Pres. of the Sr. Class; Pres. of G.A.A. She slapped make-up around for the Jr. play; helped with costumes for the Sr. play; French Club 1 yr. Her future plans ban marriage. Now, Clara!

William Byers

Don't Blame Me

Bunny, lover of French fried potatoes and thick juicy steaks, participated in football 2 yrs.; Com. Club 2; and Intramural basketball 4. He longs to imitate our Henry Cunningham. Claims that his funniest experience is getting this far in school. His favorite star is Allen Hale; choice sports hero, Bulldog Turner. "Do Little And See More" is his motto.

2000-3300-25

Douglas Burns

I'll Be Around

Nutsie, Nutmeats, or what-have-you, was tossed around by M.H.S. opponents in both football & basketball. Chums with Ponce Patterson and Spider Cummins. Liked history (believe it or not), ice cream, E. G. Robinson, Charlie Spivak, and his green Ford. He plans to join the Leatherneck corps after graduation. His greatest mistake was buying a "37" Ford.

Rosemary Bugden

Smiles

"Bugs" crooned 2 yrs. in Choir; G.A.A.'ed 2; Usher Clubbed 1. Scribbled as Scriba in Latin Club; chmn'd Senior play ticket sale. First Aid is her favorite subject. A perfect meal would include macaroni and cheese and butterscotch pie. Her most prized possession, Ray's Club ring. Rosie has pep, good looks and hordes of friends. Plans nursing, or joining the W.I.V.E.S.

Marilyn Sue Brownfield

You're In Love With Everyone

Busy "Brownie" had her efficient thumb in every pie. She art-edited the annual, decorated the gym for the J-Hop chmn. Jr. Play publicity comm.; designed its springy programs; chmn'd school election comm.; starred as Alex in Spring Dance. Latin Club 2 yrs.; G.A.A. 4, Usher 2. Aspires to be original. Most embarrassing moment, a zipper broke, dropping her skirt upon M.H.S.'s hail floor.

E. CURTIS-M

Margaret Aileen Curtis

Takin' A Chance On Love
Charming Marge came eastward from Kalamazoo her Jr. yr. where she had been Vice Pres. of her Freshman Class. She joined the Choir; played harassed Mildred, the maid, in the Sr. Play. Math is her choice subject; Miss Erskine her ideal personality. She will be the wife of Fred Hayes. And her engagement ring is her prized possession.

Emmeline Decker

Pin Up Girl
Emmie graced the Jr. play as slap-happy Gabby. Strove for points in G.A.A. 4 yrs.; Latin Club 1; Com. Club 2. Says her greatest fault is falling in love too often; favorite possession, a bundle of her first love letters. Sauerkraut and Mickey Mouse rate high; Fun- at moment; time—following G.A.A. formal in 1943; place—Holly's Grill, Kal.; incident—deep mystery.

Dewey C. DeVine, Jr.

My Ideal
Captain Duke of the '45 basketball squad was center on the State Champion team of '44 (played 4 yrs.); did All-T.V. work at right end in football (played 3 yrs.); worked avidly on the J-Hop; portrayed an engaging "Buzz" opposite Marge E. in "And Came The Spring"; liked being gym asst. Former "D" has bought "the" ring

Nora Jean Dowding

I'm Old Fashioned
Cricket, that petite, bright-eyed damsel of the Library and Spanish Clubs, claims that her worst fault is talking; but the big question is, when? Her favorite food is candy; while geometry's the subject in her life. Frankie Swoonatra satisfies her musical tastes; collects photographs.

Doris L. Down

Scatterbrain
One of the official snoopers on the Dial; played sweet and stupid Frances in "Spring Dances"; not-so secretly yearns to imitate Betty Hutton; noise plus desire make this likely. She loves Kate Smith's Jello. Her greatest enjoyment in 12 yrs. of school was boys encountered therein. Bob Boston's her sports hero; greatest fault—talking out of turn (says she)

Marjorie Elaine Elsacer

You're Driving Me Crazy
Midge's big moment was that acclaimed lead in the Jr. play; strutted as drum major-ette 2 yrs.; twinkle-toed at G.A.A. shledigs 4 yrs; sports-manager (G.A.A.) this yr.; her art work enlivened the bi-weekly Dial. One bad 60 seconds: desk tipping over backwards when she was a tremulous jr. hi-er.

Laura M. English

A Boy In Khaki, A Girl in Lace
Bonny Laura spends spare time with pal Toni Behnke and Irene Huff. Petrol's Market made many a mill under her superb salesmanship. Eating too many sweets she admits as her weakness; horrible memory—her freshman fall, taken flat as she leaned against the blackboard.

B. GORE

Bonita Gore

Estrellita

Bonnie, of the innumerable boy-friends, was a G.A.A. 3 yrs., and slapped make-up on the victims for the Sr. Play. She chums with Phil Bowe and J. Armour; loves hamburgers and Van Johnson. She plans to be a nurse or a writer, whichever the war decides. Her brother, Lloyd, is a hero.

E. GELTY

Anita Gard

Cool, Calm, Collected

Entering M.H.S. as a Jr., amiable Anita left behind her White Cloud H. S. and W. K. Kellogg Ag. school. She joined Com. Club; became Sec'y of the '45 seniors. Her diary is her pride and joy; giggling her favorite pastime. Movies don't interest her; ice cream and shorthand do; now and then Lux Radio hour; office asst. to Mr. Rose.

E. GARD

Thomas Foster

Wine, Women, and Song

Towering Tom overtopped the team in football his Soph. yr., was skittish Boyd in Spring Dance; after wartime Navy life, he plans college training to be a Vet. Marv Shebel is his sports hero. Beans he loves, all ways but raw. Junior, an A. and P. extra, couldn't get in early. Did high school in 3 yrs.

E. FOX

Fred G. Fox

Flash

Foxtie played intramurals 4 yrs.; ornamented the orchestra 2 yrs.; looks toward the Navy or M. S. C. Fred avoids black cats; confesses to talking too much. After a chop suey meal, he'd like Bing Crosby to croon to him. Ball games and formals highlighted his high school life. Work at home kept him busy.

Jean Fiske

Sleepy Time Gal

Agreeable Jean has escaped nicknames and superstitions. She joined the 1944-45 Biology Club; enjoyed book-keeping, school games, and her job as cashier at Elsie's Cafe. Had trouble getting to school on time; plans farm life. Cherishes her letters above all possessions. Admires Ingrid Bergman; listens to Lux Radio Theatre.

Herbert W. Ferguson

Do Nothin' Till You Hear From Me

Football, his first love, and intramural sports each consumed 4 years of slender "Pie's" efforts. The Navy, or farming, looms on his horizon. He likes algebra, Errol Flynn, fried chicken, and his deer rifle. Claims he talks too much, but we don't know when. Cal Frost and Jack Thomas complete his triangle.

Esther M. Gelty

My Wild Irish Rose

Sociable Snuffy joined Chorus this yr.; joined G.A.A. 4 yrs. Latin Club 1, Com. 2, Phot. "I didn't study enough," she wails. Coach Gray is her sports hero. Noon hours were fun. Steak and Van Johnson (2 hard-to-gets) thrilled her. She divided out-of-school hours between Hemmingway and the Garden Cafe, feeding the dear public.

Ann Graham

Quiet Please

"Mady" spent 4 yrs. in G.A.A. (Vice-Pres. Jr. yr.); Prog. Chmn. 1 yr. in Latin Club; Com. Club 2 yrs.; habléed 2 yrs. in Spanish Club; Usher Club 3 yrs. (Asst. and Head Usher.) Assiat. director of "And Came the Spring" played well volcanic "Mady" "Spring Dance." "Dud" set 10 pages as Asst. Ed. for the year.

Jeanne Hamilton

The Thrill of a Romance

Each tooted her sax 4 yrs. Band; G.A.A. member 4 yrs., Latin Club 1, Com. Club 1. Really goes for chocolate cake, Ann Southern, the Hit Parade, and Sonja Henie. She's looking forward to being married next Nov. Mr. Bradley furnished her blushing second: "Jeanne, how do you know so much about libian?"

Richard G. Hamp

Satan's on the Jamboree

Chubby Dick, the stage-struck minstrel man with the book of jokes, chmn'ed the J-Hop program com. and publicity for the Jr. play; designed much of the White Christmas foyer. He claims it's unlucky to go out with 2 girls on the same night. He plans the Navy as a future; prefers hairless Bing to bloodless Frankie.

Mary Lou Herman

Got The Moon In My Pocket

Bunny trailed in Choir 2 yrs.; Vice-Pres. of Biology Club this year; she claims she talks too loud, likes geometry, Van Johnson, ice cream, and hamburgers. Is superstitious about walking under ladders. She plans to work on the old farm front after graduation. Ball games and dances provided her big thrills in M.H.S.

Dorothea L. Horton

Fine and Dandy

Dot, a fixture at the Morris Store, avoided clubs and activities, but loved helping in the school offices. Her jewelry she prizes highly; Eleanor Roosevelt is her ideal femme, perhaps because they both love to talk. Her horoscope reveals clerking in some big clothing store. What, not a man in the picture?

Patricia Howe

How Many Hearts Have You Broken?

Raven-haired Pat, editor of this compendium, served G.A.A. as Treas., one of her 2 yrs., and the French Club as pres.; co-directed Spring Dance. She believes that a new hair-do means a new boy-friend and blushes when she laughs out in class. Pat combines brains, beauty, and bustling briskness in her 5-ft.-7 body.

Ruth Ethelyn Hoyt

There'll Never Be Another You

G.A.A. 4 yrs.; Biology Club 1 (Secy.-Treas. this year); Choir 3, make Ruthie's activity history. She prizes a Marksman Medal and a ship log book beyond words (and you can ask whose). Working at Hitchins was fun; getting married will be even better. Flirting, Ruth confesses, is great sport.

John E. Lewis

The Sheik of Araby

Tenuous Horthy edited the Dial; Com. Club 2 yrs., Intramurals 4, Program Chmn. for "And Came The Spring"; was brash Buck in Sr. play. Delivered specials for the P.O. after school, but fast, so he could go palling around with Foster, Purdy, and Vogeleuter. Nimble-witted John plans to join the Navy, and then enter newspaper work. Forgetting to comb his hair his weakness.

Lyla E. Kern

Sweet and Lovely

Ebon-haired Lylis capable secy-treas'd her 9th grade through high finance, was Bus. Mgr. of G.A.A., her Senior yr. and headed the Social Hop Committee. She Latinized in Latin Club 1 yr., Communicated 3, and habla'd in Spanish Club 1. Her Sally in the Sr play was priceless. Falls in love too easily, she says.

Donna J. Katz

I Dream Of You

Donna used her vocal chords in Choir her Fr. and Jr. yrs. She pals with Toni Behnke and Laura English; worked at hospital and Hitchens on her noon hours. Is wary of an open umbrella in the house, her favorite food is spaghetti, her personality to imitate, Mrs. Chaney. Most prized possession is a hankie from her brother in Scotland.

Viola M. Jenny

Happy Go Lucky

Vitamina stormed through the Jr. Play as Virginia; was on the Dial Staff; a G.A.A. pointer 4 yrs., and Commercial Clubber 2. She enjoyed school because of the boys therein; claims her funniest experience was coming to school with the mumps, and everyone peeking at her and laughing. Vi is full of vitality, personality, and originality; war-worked at Postum this year.

Delbert Jenks

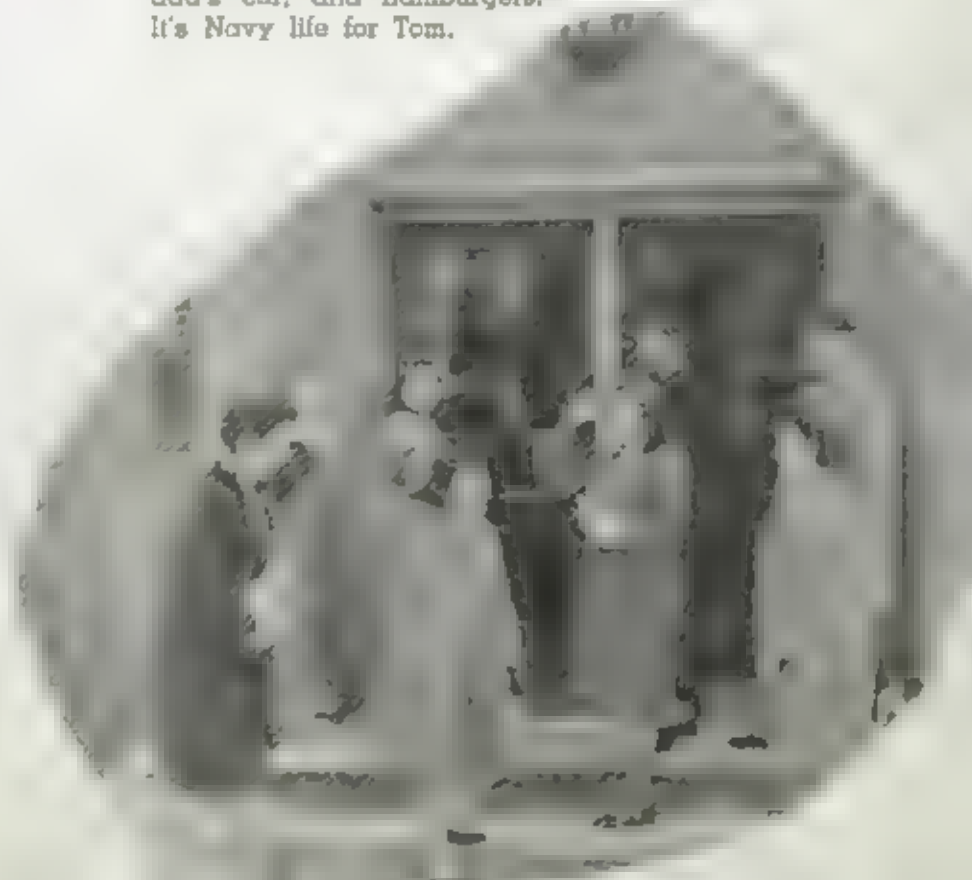

Am't Misbehavin'

Del, too modest to know his own virtues, was a football bulwark 2 yrs., played Intramurals 3, and reported for the good old Dial. "Athlete of the Week" was his feature story. He liked football and Math. Admits being a putter-offer of lessons; whisked around the Schuler as bus-boy, outside school hours.

Marion G. Humphries

What Is This Thing Called Love?

Black cats scare plump and dusky Abby; letters delight her. She served her Public at Hemmingsen's Drug Store, without revealing that she likes to "gripe." She goes for Italian spaghetti and Bob Hope's radio show. Math, particularly geometry, made school less terrible for her, but even so, getting out was her goal.

Carolyn A. Mallory

Put Your Arms Around Me,
Honey

Cookie, the musical maid, joined Spanish Club 1 yr., G.A.A. 4 yrs.; orchestra pianist 1 yr., and still is for Rudy's dance band. She plans to combine music and stenography as a 2-way after-school career. Bob Boston is tiny Caroline's sport hero. Romance played a leading role in her exciting school days.

Ralph A. Maynard

Follow the Girls

The Youth Center and the year book consumed much of slender Bud's time. He was chmn. of the former, photograph editor of the latter. He performed as a slap-happy adolescent in the Junior play, and a smooth college chap in the Senior opus. Bud prizes food, dances, and his A gas ration book.

William McCann

That Solid Old Man

The Student Council president's crown dropped smack on worthy Bill's head this yr.; he spent 2 yrs. in the Council, 2 in football, 1 in Band, and worked on the J-Hop. Mechanical drawing was his hobby, engineering his goal when Navy releases him. Everyone liked and respected manly Mr. McCann.

Jean E. Morris

Isn't She Sweet

Red, of the gorgeous auburn hair, sang in choir 1 yr., was Red Cross Chairman for the library, orchestra chmn. for the J-Hop, and foyer decorations chmn. of White Christmas. She dreams of college and a Wash., D. C. secretary's job, and marriage in 1962. Well remembers walking 3 miles to school, — flatter the cause.

Blaine H. McKenzie

Don't Fence Me In

Ruddy and reliable Mac was on School Council 3 yrs., secy-treas. of his Sophomore class, pres. of his Junior gang. He spent 2 yrs. in Latin Club, vice-pres. 1 yr. As a freshman, he managed both football and basketball teams. A skipper on the A. and P. special, he hopes to co-admiral our Navy with brother Bob.

Jerry Pangle

Straighten Up and Fly Right

Quite-a-record Pangle entered M.H.S. this year with 2 yrs. of football, a Junior play part, 2 yrs. of Band, Soph. Class pres. to his credit. He cherishes his clarinet, and a pilot's log book. Gerald helped decorate the Christmas foyer and proved himself a pal. With Aviation his hobby, naturally he believes in grem-lins.

Leon Patterson

Arkansas Traveler

"Ponce" presided over the Freshmen Class his first year in high school. Expertly tossed a football around his last 2 yrs. "Leer" pals around with "Nutsie" Burns and "Snake" Cummins. History, ice cream, Bob Hope, and the Hit Parade top his list. He relished being Gym Asst. Ponce has visions of joining the Marines after graduation. But Leon, Marines have to stay awake!!

Charles E. Ray

I'm Bidin' My Time

Charles, who hailed from Kentucky his Soph. yr., is a wizard in govt. and history, which accounts for his fondness for these subjects. His greatest fault, in his eyes, is talking too much; we are inclined to wonder about that. Enjoys listening to "Report to the Nation"; thinks Gary Cooper can really act. Plans to take up law

James Clifford Purdy

When I Grow Up

Kentucky's Cliff, of the crazy antics, the sense of humor, and the poetic talent business-managed the Annual his Senior yr.; official decorator for the J-Hop. He loved acting foolish in assemblies; claims his greatest fault is laughing. Favorite subject, Typing, "cause Manoria's so sweet." Plans to be a window decorator. "Joe" skillfully played the pixilated prof. in the Sr. play.

Thelma Ranger

My Mother Told Me

Thelma warbled 4 yrs. in the Choir, was a Biologist 1 yr., una Senorita her Sr. yr. Her future plans are indefinite; favorite food is steak with french fries, and her fondest school memories are vacations. Her temper is her problem, she says. Home Ec. she enjoyed.

Lois Pratt

Little Lady Make-Believe

Shorty vocalized in the front row of Choir 1 yr., French Clubbed 2, orated in Speech contests 2. Her diary she faithfully kept, and treasures it. Quick-witted Lois liked world history, cokes, Tom Harmon, and the Hit Parade. She wishes she didn't talk so much, she s-a-y-s. She sold ladies' ready-to-wear at the Power Shop. Pint-sized Lois doesn't lack pep or brains.

Edna Belle Pike

Sleepy Time Gal

Eddie came from Southeastern Jr. High her Soph. year; she warbled in Choir 2½ yrs. After the ceremonies in May, she will work, then settle down in a rose-covered nest. Ed's pals: Eleanor Day, Doris Hardwick, and Helen Seedorf. Indicates that she likes, Home Living and Miss Marshall, her class ring, and sour fruits (not sour grapes, surely).

Russel Peck

Why Was I Born?

Russ, with the perpetual Butch cut, had fun the hard way. He was asst. director of the Jr. play, capable chief printer for the Dial, and helped stage Spring Dance. Commercial Club endured his antics 2 yrs., intramurals 1. Perpetually sleepy, but always peppy; Navy life should be perfect for tireless Russ. Hamburgs and school assemblies make him happy.

Alice A. Patton

She Shall Have Music Wherever She Goes

Her saxophone was her good companion in Band 4 yrs.; Skieset felt silbest in her life in G.A.A. initiation, but enjoyed 4 yrs. of it. Commercial Clubbed 2 yrs., was athletic Christine in Jr. Play. H.C. bow ties intrigue her; spilling salt scares her. She handled diamonds at Hulet's for pin money. Al really loves life.

Harold Reuss

Sometimes I'm Happy, Sometimes I'm Blue

Harold, of the Dial staff, injected his timid personality into the part of Allen Fields in "And Came The Spring." Mechanical Drawing tops the list with him; so do hamburgers and marshmallow sundaes. After graduation exercises, he will sail away to the Navy. A Jack of all trades, he perfumed the chemistry room with his sometimes successful attempts at making soap.

Geraldyn Ada Rose

I Got Rhythm

Blonde Jille was a noisy drummer in Band in grades 8, 9, 10; added color to G.A.A. formals 4 yrs.; Latin Clubbed 2, Ushered 2. Was glamorous Carolyn in the Jr. Play; reporter on the Dial. Marimba Rose attended Inter-School last summer, plans the same this year, then U. of M. Perry claims her greatest fault is singing in class; she actually loved Govt.

Maxine Royer

Dark Eyes

Dark haired "Mack" lent volume to the Choir 2 yrs. and found Home Living her favorite subject. Letters from a certain sailor bring joy to her heart. Van Johnson and Dennis Morgan bring joy to her eyes. Her greatest fault is being late for the school bus. We hope that when she is busy on the new job, she gets there on time.

Dorothy Marilyn Schaefer

He Wears A Pair Of Silver Wings

D.A.R. Girl, versatile Dot spent 3 yrs. on School Council Assembly Comm.; 3 in Band; 2 in Choir; Asst. ed of this Dial Vice-Pres. of Jr. Class, Sec. Treas. Spanish Club; Gen. Chmn. J Hop; Floor Show Chmn., G.A.A. Formal; Program Comm. Chmn. Jr. play; G.A.A. 4 yrs.; Latin Club 2. She lived the poised part of Kate in the Sr. play.

Carole M. Shreve

How Sweet You Are

Blonde Carole with the cherubic face G.A.A.'ed 4 yrs., Latin Clubbed 1, and Commercialized it 2. She loves anything with chocolate, and steadfastly believes in ghosts and their hocus pocus. Chums with E. Decker, L. Kern, and S. Blanchard. Future plans include a job and lots of loafing time. She claims her greatest fault is getting into trouble, but what kind she failed to reveal.

Betty Jean Stout

Stormy Weather

"B. J." patronized G.A.A. 4 yrs., Com. Club 2, Spanish 1, Library 1. Aptly supervised make-up for the Jr. Play. Usher Club 1 yr. Was a snooper-dooper-reporter for the Dial. Likes to chatter, and confesses that it's her greatest fault. Van Johnson is by far her favorite movie star; steak with onions her top dish. The crystal ball foretells college for Betty.

John F. Thomas

Same

Tall-haired Jack, in F.F.A. 3 yrs. was Pres. as a Jr.; Biology Club Pres. as a Sr. Played intramurals 1 yr. Jack dreads black cats, loves his gun, and thrilled to the '43 J Hop. After June 2 he will leave the Marshall Lumbe. Co. for a life on the wide wide ocean; he'd like to farm.

DEATHURS

Patricia H. Waite

Hittin' a New High Pat, or Red, was a lover of football games, hamburgers, and ice-cream. G.A.A. 4 yrs., Com. Club 1, Phot. Club 1; achieved her 4-yr. ambition by being a twirler with the Band this year. She looks toward being an interior decorator, or a gift-shop promoter.
Pat is short in stature but long on friendliness.

Deborah Ann Vogelreuter

I'm Getting Sentimental
Over You
Deb aptly portrayed Mrs.
Fields in the Jr. play, and asst-directed the Sr. play.
She exchange-edited the Dial;
Secy. of the Latin Club 1 yr.
G.A.A.'ed 4 yrs., Spanish Clubbed 1, Ushered 2; was 9th grade Debater. Debbie went to Wolverine Girls State. Loves steaks and Speech Class. She claims her funniest (and painfulest) experience was chronic falling down.

Dorothy Joy Walters

Melancholy Baby Duffy wasn't much of joiner, but she got arouand kept informed. She fe-that her curiosity is a fa-but we didn't notice it. She cherishes her photograph lection, and is fearful of moving a ring put on her some one else. As soon
she snatches her diploma she's off to Ft. Wayne to a job—definitely!

W-T-BED

Vida Van Patten

Speak Low
Vida G.A.A.'ed 4 yrs., Latin Clubbed 1, habla'ed for 1 yr in Spanish Club, and was a book worm of the Library Club. The future foretells a nursing career for her; her ideal personality is her cousin, a nurse. She's an admirer of dark Turhan Bey, Ronald Reagan, and, of course, Van Johnson. She loves chocolate cake, and admits her greatest fault is chewing gum in public.

Jeanne Treadwell

Lovely To Look At
Teddy lent her vocal chords to the Choir 3 yrs. She goes Italian in her love for spaghetti, and is one of Van Johnson's ardent admirers.
She claims her greatest fault is chewing gum; when she realizes she's arrived at school on time, she actually laughs. Looks toward letters from the sailor in her life, but plans to be an old maid.
What a muddle!!

Joseph F. Thompke

Take It Easy
Joe, the everlate laddie, actually played the violin 2 yrs. in the Orchestra. He is one of the Cummins and Cato brothers' quartet, and a lover of cnap suey and the radio program "Suspense." School work couldn't seem to get done, he says; expects to don bell bottomed trousers and sail merrily over the waves.
The A. and P. will miss him.

W-3300

Medora A. Weiso

Jenny Made Her Mind Up
"Dorie" warbled in the Choir her Sr. yr. and rendered service to the Spanish Club. Her favorite food is American apple pie; Spanish rates first in subjects. Van Johnson positively sends her. She'd like to bat a tennis ball around like Alice Marble. Admits she talks too much, but finds it entertaining. In the crystal ball, we see Dora slavin' way in some type of work.

Patricia Lorraine White

Love Me Or Leave Me
Rattling Petunia planned refreshments for the J-Hop, and helped manage the ticket sale for the Jr. play. G.A.A. kept her in form 4 yrs.; Com.
Club 3; Library Club 2; and Fisher 1. Her weakness is falling in love too often; she hopes her final romance will lead her to a sailor. Smooth talking, Pat, and bon voyage.

PET-13

Clair Duane Wickman

Piccolo Pete

Book lovin' Duane sprinted from Springport to M.H.S. this year. There this lanky likable lad indulged in 1 yr. of basketball, 1 each of Band and Orchestra, and was in the Jr.
play. He was on our Student Council (chmn. publicity), and created the eccentric womanhating Lippincot in the Sr.
play. Com. Art is his hobby, and goal.

Gordon Wilbur

Farmer In The Dell

Timid Gordy was a member of F.F.A. 3 yrs., and claims Ag's his favorite subject. He pals with Duane Wickman. enjoyed assemblies most in his school yrs. He states that his greatest fault is putting work off, and he shows decided partiality for the antics of Abbot and Costello. Gordy collects arrow-heads for a hobby.

Henry M. Woods

The Dreamer, I Guess That's Just My Name

Dimpled Hank of the velvet voice enrolled in Latin Club 2 yrs., F.F.A. 2, and reported on the Dial. He played 4 yrs.
of intramurals; worked on J-Hop decorations, Jr. play programs, and chmn'd Sr. play publicity. Serious Henry values his education above all, looks toward post-war college days, perhaps at Notre Dame.

Keith A. Woods

I'll Get By

Handsome and deliberate
Keith was a properly har-rassed father in the Jr. Play.
He tooted the bass horn in Band 4 yrs., was pres. of the Band this yr. A member of F.F.A. 3 yrs.; participated in intramurals 2 yrs. He chums with Albert Cayer; claims his greatest weakness is blushing. His greatest enjoyment was Mr. Cunningham.

Phyllis J. Wygant

Lady Be Good

Speed Bubbles-Purdy—call her any one, and it comes out Phyllis. She likes Home Living, chicken, going to bed late, and especially her letters from R. Kent. She plans to resign work on the farm for Cadet Nursing soon; romance can wait. Mary Glenn and Maxine Royer are her side-kicks.

Eighteenth birthdays snatched these seven lads from the 1944-45 class before they could graduate. The DIAL bestows on them full honors, and so does M. H. S., even if it could not bestow diplomas.

Thanks for the Memory

*"As I walked down the echoing halls
All these familiar sounds Came back to me as I made the rounds."*

Echoing down the first floor halls came the sound of Mrs. Hecht's typewriter, clicking furiously, as it so often does. It was almost like old times when as Freshmen we chose Leon Patterson class-president, to guide us through our first exciting year of high school.

Upon reaching the second floor, I glanced down in the direction of Mr. Rose's office, where Anita Gard used to spend so much of her time, and saw Mr. Rose frantically issuing blue slips. I wandered farther down the hall and suddenly remembered how Bob Boston came here in the 10th grade and was immediately elected class-president, and later became one of our best athletes.

I thought further of all the newcomers our Junior year brought: Ralph Maynard from Chicago, Margaret Curtis from Kalamazoo, and Pat Howe from Conn. I remembered, too that James Harden and Kenneth Lowder left us to join the Navy.

The day we picked our class rings Mrs. Murray made public the coming event, our Jr. play, "And Came The Spring." After the tremulous tryouts were over, Marge Elsacer and "Duke" DeVine came out on top with the leads. Supporting them were: Vi, Bud, Chuck, Phyllis, Emmie, Ralph, Alice, Gerry, Debby, Tom, Herold, Keith, Russ, and Janet. Campaign posters on the second floor walls remind me of how we scored that year in the Student Council with "Terry" Clark as vice-president, and acting president after Maynard's departure for the Army.

Upon arriving on the third floor, via the center stairs, I bumped into Mr. Cunningham's History room door. Again I hear Mr. Cunningham say gravely, "All right, now settle down. I mean it." Although it was his first year at M.H.S., we immediately chose him, and Miss Erskine, as our sponsors. Due to their ever-ready guidance and patience our J-Hop was a tremendous success. Many long hours were spent on the making of Circus trimmings by a skilled crew under the direction of Marilyn Brownfield and Dot Schaefer. We also introduced the annual magazine sale which reimbursed our capital immensely.

Yes! We had a prosperous year under the presidential administration of Blaine McKenzie.

Our Senior year brought Margaret Barton and Duane Wickman, and both drew parts in the Senior play. Bill McCann was elected president of Student Council; later entered the Navy with Bill Byers and James Bicknell.

Steadies flashed off and on during the course of the year, but Phil Bowers remained true to Kenny, and Dick Rocho courted Clara Clark full force. After Ardis left, Leon Patterson appeared broken hearted, for at least 3 days; but he lived.

The second semester left us with still fewer boys. Among those leaving was Russ Peck. He's the chap who, when Vi fell on some jelly rolls, rushed to pick her up exclaiming, "Oh! My jelly rolls." Blaine McKenzie and Tom Johnston left for the Navy about that time, too.

Popular Dot Schaefer was chosen D.A.R. girl to add to our good fortune.

Handsome Charles Sayers and likable Marilyn Brownfield held down the dramatic leads in the Senior play "Spring Dance." Judy, Lyla, Dot, Ralph, Duane, Margaret C., Margaret, Doris, John, Tom, and Cliff completed the cast.

Under the direction of Chuck Sayers, our Senior class president, we held our annual class meeting to choose our class colors. Some of the male members found it hard to agree, but we finally decided on blue and gold, and navy blue caps and gowns. We voted to leave backboards for the gym as our gift to the school.

Before departing, I slowly opened the door of the auditorium and peered in. Row upon row of empty seats stared me in the face. I recalled all our class meetings here, and all the assemblies.

Then had come the spring and all the preparations for graduation. As I traced my steps back through the halls there came over me the overwhelming thought that we are young men and women. No longer frightened Freshmen, not knowing what goes on. I paused for a brief moment, clutching my diploma a little more firmly, looking back for a lingering pause over all the little personal pains and pleasures linked with my high school years. A tear trickled down my cheek as I opened the door and — — OFF WE GO!

Music, Maestro, Please

The Music Department carried on this year with the traditional spirit of that unit, by furnishing band, orchestra, or choir entertainment at any request. Mr. Bradley's groups proved their abilities in their respective duties.

The Band played at various assemblies, basketball games, football games, and other occasions. Everyone deeply appreciates the fine music fitted to each need.

Vocalizing classics and ballads as well as other types of songs and hymns lent variety to the well balanced program of the choir. Solo work was a choir feature.

The String Ensemble added dignity to many a gathering, with the soft, mellow strains of violins and cellos filling the atmosphere.

JR. SCIENCE

B-OLDOLOGY

These scientific tyros organized this year, and functioned from the beginning. They had social meetings and movies, sponsored assemblies, and did research.

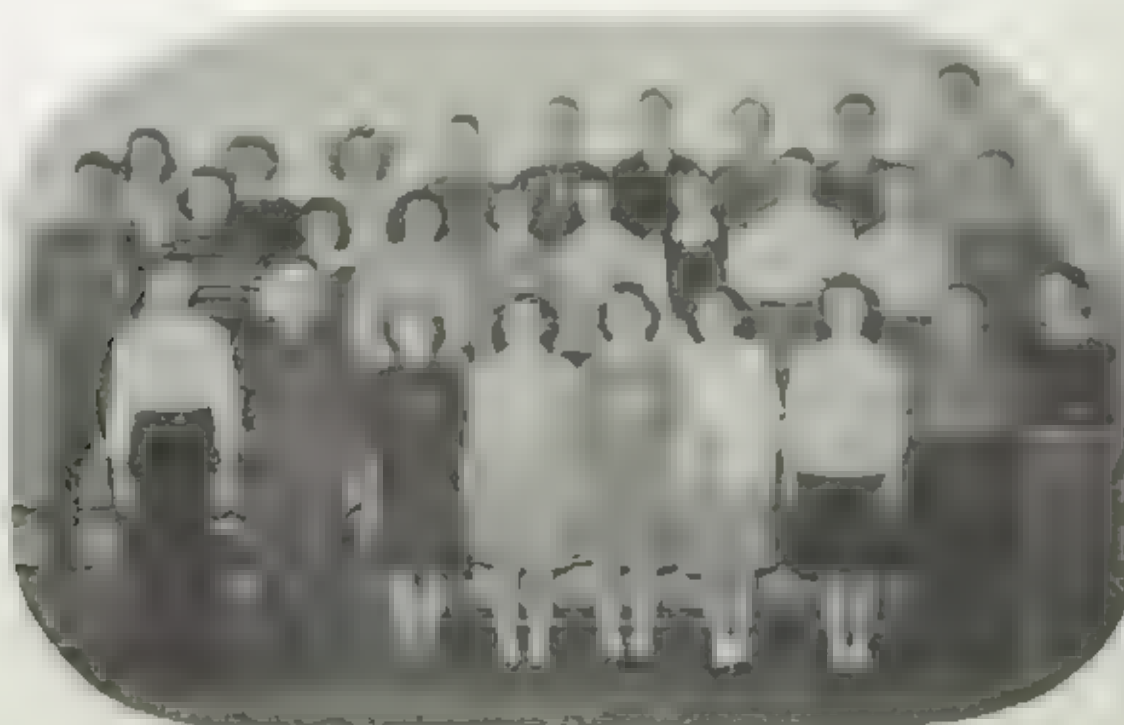

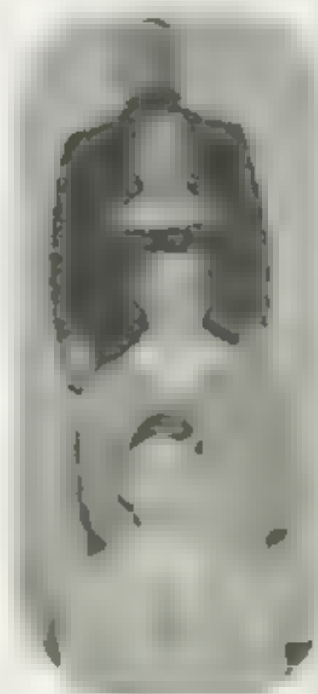

Milkweed for life-saving jackets for the navy comprised their outstanding patriotic project. They gathered pounds and pounds of the fluff. Sponsor Wilcox is proud of this group.

ATHLETICS

The march of the Redskins, 1943-44 Twin Valley Champions, halted in 1944-45, when East Lansing, out of the conference for some years, re-entered competition, and copped the title. The Gray-men tied with Sturgis for runner-up spot, winning 4 and losing 2.

Sept. 22—At Battle Creek we took a 20-0 defeat from the claws of the Bearcats, in a non-conference game that provided invaluable experience.

Sept. 29—We played host to East Lansing. The tall Trojan troops used their classic prowess to trounce the Redskins, 18-0.

Oct. 6—A 14-8 win over Jackson St. Mary, a non-conference game.

Oct. 13—A super-charged Redskin team catapulted on to the home field to overpower Coldwater by 58 points in a perfectly played game. The Cards went scoreless. Sayers' running was a highlight.

Oct. 18—A confident Marshall team succumbed to a 13-6 upset on Sturgis' field. Gabriel and Morris did staunch defense work.

Oct. 27—The Bennett-Sayers-Crampton trio maneuvered perfect lateral passes to defeat Lakeview there, 26-0. Our superior line kept the Spartans from crossing our 35-yard stripe.

Nov. 3—In a driving rain we swamped Hillsdale, here, 34-0. Kelly, fleet backfielder, made 2 touchdowns: Burns, Howard, and Sayers one each.

Nov. 11—Hundreds of rooters rambled to Albion to watch our warriors vanquish our rival 9-0, only after a real battle. A long pass, DeVine to Burns, brought the only touchdown. Gabriel and Jenks surpassed in defense. Stellar lineman D. Rapp was injured.

This squad truly upheld the fighting tradition of Marshall teams. Our clever, resourceful and pre-eminent Coach Gray produced a team with a galaxy of fleet backs, and a rugged line. The latter accounted for our not being scored upon in our last three games.

Boston, a great captain, was key-man of the attack. He bossed and babied his men with real leadership.

VISITORS

Hip, Hip, Hooray

Nine Twin Valley wins, three losses; co-champs with Sturgis!! Not a home game lost in over two seasons! 564 Marshall points, 459 T. V. points made against us. Non-T. V.- games, St. Philip (B. C.) and St. Joseph,—111 for Marshall, 56 opponents'. A great seasonal record for Coach Gray and his gallant crew.

DEWEY DEVINE, center. Capt. "Duke" led his team-mates to another great season. Dewey was a whiz on floor play, and was third in scoring. He was a short center, but outjumped his opposing man time and time again. Speed and grace marked this senior's play. He rated honorable mention in the Twin Valley.

DICK CRAMPTON, forward. Blonde Dick, a junior, led the Redskins with 214 points, and finished high in conference standings. Reamer's specialty was tip-in shots; he was a "dead-eye" at the basket. He and Bennett formed a record-shattering, much-feared scoring duo. The Twin Valley coaches made him a forward on the top ten.

RALPH BENNETT, forward. Toward the middle of the season tall Bud ran into knee trouble, but came back strong. In this, his third varsity year, he specialized in passing, and was so expert at this that he deserves credit for our great scoring record. Senior Bud is probably the best-known Class B player in Michigan. He placed on the Twin Valley star team.

DOUG BURNS, guard. Long shots that whizzed through the ring were a feature of Doug's playing. He was a stellar defensive man, probably the smoothest and calmest on the squad. Frederick could add points when they were needed. He was a sub on the 1944 state champ squad. Honorable mention in the Twin Valley.

BEN KELLY, guard. Ben J. was aggressive and "in there fightin'" all the time. His passing was accurate and sure, and Ben opened up many a rally in scoring. Though shorter than many guards, he was lightning at leaping for the ball and usually got it.

BOB BOSTON, a consistent game-saver, CHARLES SAYERS, fighting bantam-weight, BOB HOBSON, expert at either guard or forward position, MELVIN TESSIN, tall brainy sub, and BOB HOWARD, short but sure-shooting man, completed the roster of a great gang.
